

PLAYING AUSTRALIA

The assessment panel made the following general comments on the applications submitted in this grant category:

- The work presented in this round was of high quality.
- It was pleasing to see a range of small to medium companies and independent producers applying to the category with competitive applications.
- Proofread your application carefully, checking budgets and itineraries closely for any discrepancies.
- Provide accessible, relevant, high quality support material which accurately reflects the quality of the work you intend to present.
- Don't assume prior knowledge of the panel about you, your organisation or your work.
